BIGAMY CASE

 collar and cuffs when she appeared at the hearing.
 A bit of humor was injected into the otherwise tense atmosphere when Groh's attorney insisted that Mrs. Groh No. 2 be informed that she need not answer questions which might incriminate her.
 "Does that mean I don't have to answer any questions or just the ones I don't want to?" the shapely Mrs. Groh No. 2 asked, slightly perturbed.
 Following an amused burst of laughter in which Judge Willett joined, the judge explained that what is meant is that she need not answer questions for which she might be prosecuted later.
 Mrs. Groh No. 2 did not avail herself once of this privilege during the questioning, however.
 Except for smiling slightly during this episode, the second wife did not betray her emotions, keeping whatever strain she felt well under control.
 She appeared at the hearing wearing a close-fitting red sweater, gray flannel slacks, red socks, and bluish-black moccasins. The raven-haired woman wore dark sun-glasses throughout the hearing.
 While Groh did not testify at this hearing, he claimed at the time of his arrest that his wife No. 1 went back east to obtain a divorce. Thinking that she was going through with her plans, he remarried again.
 Both Groh and Mrs. Groh No. 2 work for Douglas aircraft in Torrance.
 Marriage records indicate that Groh has been married on three prior occasions.
 Groh is out on $500 bail.

FIRE

 brand new TV set, which she had to abandon however.
Yells to Neighbor
 Once outside, the woman yelled to a neighbor to call the Lomita Fire Department which, together with the Carson engine, raced to the scene.
 The flames, however, shot through the structure of the house in a matter of minutes, and there was nothing left to save after firefighters arrived.
Take Up Collection
 Neighbors, led by Mrs. Herbert Brisbin of 25034 Walnut, started right away to take up a collection for the homeless family. Among the first to contribute were the firemen who so desperately tried to salvage the family's belongings. The only thing which was saved was a washing machine and the family car.
 Contributions are still being collected. Mrs. Brisbin may be reached at DA 6-4747.
 The Chromisters hope to find a new home in the area. At present they and the children are staying at the home of various relatives.
 Chromister is employed at Bechtel Steam Corporation.
 The children are William, 11, Nellie, 10, Donna, 9, Cecil, 5, and Mary, 3.

CRASH

 out of a moving car on Pacific Coast Highway near Winlock rd. Friday night when she tried to close one of the rear doors which apparently was slightly ajar. The girl suffered lacerations and bruises.
 Driving the car was Mrs. Rockolene Wood, 31, of 2642 Brian ave. Mrs. Wood had warned her daughter not to touch the door until she could do it herself.
 A police car driven by Officer James E. Thompson, 29, swerved out of control at 174th st. and Delia st. while in pursuit of two racers as one of them swung from 174th st. up Delia street. Thompson's car slid into a parked car owned by Clarence A. Glomboske, 17327 Delia. The officer escaped unhurt.
Injuries
 Taken to a private physician

ZONE

 small-scale activities which might not conform to residential uses.
 Changes in the plan ordered by the commission provide a set-back modification and parking area for the Methodist church, change from two-family residential to agricultural for an area between Walnut avenue and Ebony lane, north of 252nd street.
 A change from light manufacturing to modified industrial Sunday was Mrs. Alberta T. Johnston, 34, 3330 W. 174th st. Mrs. Johnston twice hit the parkway dividing 174th st. in the 3300 block, crossing it the second time and ramming into a power pole on the other side of the road.
 The front of her '52 Studebaker was estimated as a total loss, according to Officers Don Nash and Bill Winther.

use was also made in an area between Crenshaw boulevard and Pennsylvania avenue for about three blocks south of Lomita boulevard.
 The latter use was made slightly heavier because of an industrial area adjoining in Torrance.
 Setting of the hearing by the Board of Supervisors is expected by the end of this month.
